

Associate Futurist - SOUND

Serene Stan Tan graduated from Lasalle-SIA College of the Arts in Classical Music. Her full time music career has been primarily in education, teaching piano privately and teaching gamelan and world music at various schools. Stan's performing credits include gamelan performances in Korea and Poland, performing at Esplanade and various Street Festivals and also as part of another drum-and-bass outfit. She has performed for President George Bush, President SR Nathan and also for Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong at the recent re-opening of the Malay Heritage Centre in 2012.

Stan is currently the Artistic Director of Singapore's first fusion gamelan group "Gammarays" and also for fusion world band "TiGaia". She has also contributed live music performances for drama projects with Esplanade, W!ld Rice, ITheatre and SimplyWorks and has performed in Edinburgh and Kuala Lumpur.

She is also the Creative Director of World Beats! Festival.